DAY 2      04.09.2024, Wednesday      Vyborg

Vyborg

This intimate medieval town, located close to the border with Finland, impresses with its ancient architecture. One of the most famous monuments is Vyborg Castle, which has become a unique monument of European fortification architecture on the territory of Russia. This castle was built in the XIII century by Swedish crusaders and was an outpost of Karelian Isthmus (between the Gulf of Finland and Lake Ladoga). Today, in the castle there is a state museum with interactive shows and permanent exhibitions.
